MR. PAYNE DEADLOCKS THE TARIFF CONFEREES

Senator Aldrich and Speaker Cannon Take the Tariff Bill Bodily to the White House.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The tariff bill was hoisted above the bickerings of congressional conferees yesterday and transferred bodily from the Capitol to the White House. Deadlocked because of the attitude of Representative Payne, who apparently has become obsessed with the growing conviction that he is in the minority, the conferees abandoned the usual afternoon session. Senator Aldrich and Speaker Cannon repaired to the White House post haste to consult with President Taft, literally taking the tariff bill with them.

What happened at the White House between the President and the Senate and House leaders is a sealed book. When Messrs. Aldrich and Cannon returned to the Capitol they minimized the differences that had aroused bitterness in the conference room and insisted that nothing unusual had occurred.

Nevertheless, there has been trouble behind those closed and guarded doors that shut the public from the room where the real tariff bill is being constructed. Some say that the differences between Senator Aldrich and Representative Payne have taken such form that progress is impossible unless the President has influence enough to compel action.

Payne Angry, Leaves Room.

From a creditable source it was learned that a crisis was reached when an effort was made late yesterday to vote on lumber. Mr. Payne protested and urged that such a move would be unfair to the President, as this was one of the subjects practically submitted to him for adjustment, providing he could get votes enough in the two houses to adopt compromise rates.

Mr. Payne is reported to have said that he would not sign a conference report merely because a majority of the House Republican conferees had agreed to it. With his coat tails curled about him Mr. Payne stalked angrily from the room.

When asked why an early adjournment for the day was taken yesterday Mr. Aldrich and other conferees said it was to give all of them an opportunity to consult with colleagues and constituents about proposals for the settlement of numerous amendments.

The twenty-three Republicans of the

NEGRO KILLED WHILE TRYING TO BOARD CARS

ACCIDENT OCCURS AT PHIFER'S SIDING, NEAR ROCHELLE.

Sam Wilson, colored, was killed while attempting to board a moving freight train on the Atlantic Coast Line at Phifer's siding, about two miles east of Rochelle, on Tuesday evening.

It was the regular local freight, and was just slowing up for the mail when the negro, just to steal a short ride, attempted to board one of the moving box cars, and missing his hold fell under the train. His head was severed from the body, and his left arm cut off by the wheels passing over it, death resulting instantly.

Wilson was about thirty years of age and was supposed to be a gambler, traveling from place to place and meeting the "pay days" with the working class of negroes, where he would generally "take in" what money they possessed.

His cards and other gambling paraphernalia were found only a short distance from his body and were well covered with blood, some of the same being in his pockets at the time he was picked up.

Justice Robinson of Rochelle was notified and held an inquest, but after hearing the evidence the train crew was exonerated and the man buried at the expense of the county. He was known around Waldo, which place was his former home.

House, who called upon President Taft recently to plead with him to recede from his position in favor of free raw materials, were considerably alarmed yesterday when they learned of Chairman Payne's action. It was said that their number was increased through the support of Representative Hughes of West Virginia, who was not in the party that visited the White House.

Democrats May Get Inning.

The possible attitude of the House Democrats was one in which they took great interest. It was said that in the event President Taft and Representative Payne were successful in obtaining a conference report carrying out the free raw material program a large number of the minority would be found supporting the twenty-four Republicans if they decide to vote against the conference report.

A conference of the progressive Republican Senators was held immediately after the Senate adjourned. After the conference Senator Dolliver said:

"The Republicans who were unable to vote for the pending tariff bill when it passed the Senate have been greatly pleased and encouraged by the efforts of the President to change the character of the measure by the exercise of his influence with the conference committee. It is our earnest hope that he will be successful in securing real revision."

"It is evident from what he has said through the press that the President seeks not only to reduce the duties on certain so-called raw materials, but to moderate the high rates upon manufactured articles."

Democratic Senators said that Senator McEnery will be the only member of the Senate minority who will vote for the adoption of the conference report.

The House rate of 4 cents a pound on monazite sand, used in making gas mantles, was adopted by the conferees yesterday in preference to the Senate rate of 6 cents a pound. Gas mantles scrap, which the Senate had provided with a materially lower duty than on gas mantles, was placed on the same paragraph with the same rate of duty. It was contended that monazite sand is controlled by a monopoly on the monazite deposits in this country.

FLIES SEVENTY MILES IN GREAT AEROPLANE

Orville Wright Travels Over an Hour and Twenty Minutes in His Wonderful Machine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—Establishing a new record for aviation in America, Orville Wright in the Wright aeroplane late yesterday at Fort Myer made a spectacular flight of one hour, twenty minutes and forty-five seconds' duration. His longest previous flight was of seventy-four minutes made by Mr. Wright at Fort Myer last fall.

During the entire flight the machine was under perfect control but several times appeared to the spectators to be on the point of diving forward.

The machine traveled a distance of about seventy miles, it was estimated, by Wilbur Wright, and at one time during the flight the height attained, between 250 and 280 feet, exceeded the highest point ever attained by a heavier-than-air machine on this continent. The most wonderful part of the flight was the execution of three complete "figure eights," which required careful maneuvering in directing the machine.

A thrill passed through the spectators as the white flyer, apparently beginning to dive to the earth, would regain its equilibrium and speed onward around the oval above the parade grounds. After rounding the course half a hundred times the aviator directed the machine around the course in small double circles of a "figure eight." It was the first time this season and the second time during his career he has executed this maneuver.

To the amazement of the crowd the machine described a second eight and then a third one, after which it was guided back to its former course of level ovals.

With the determination of making a longer flight than heretofore attempted, the Wrights ordered the aeroplane taken from its shed to the starting apparatus shortly after 5 o'clock. Three members of President Taft's cabinet, Secretary of the Navy Meyer, Attorney-General Wickersham and Postmaster-General Hitchcock, were on hand early to witness the expected flight.

In yesterday's flight Mr. Wright met every requirement set forth by the Government, except that of carrying one passenger and making the five-mile straightaway run.

Wilbur Wright, replying to a comment that the flight yesterday would have covered the width of the English channel which Hubert Latham unsuccessfully attempted to cross Monday, said it would have been possible for his brother to have crossed from France to England and to have returned to France again without landing. He also remarked that it would have been easy to have continued yesterday's flight as far as Baltimore.

Latham Will Try Again to Cross the Channel.

PARIS, July 20.—Hubert Latham, who Monday made an attempt to fly across the English channel with his monoplane, but fell into the water, announced yesterday that he expects to make another attempt on Friday. M. Latham is in Paris as the guest of the Parliamentary Aviation Commission.

Cashier Absconds With Large Sum Bank's Cash

ANDERSON, S. C., July 21.—It developed yesterday that Cashier J. T. Holleman, of the Bank of Anderson, who suddenly left for parts unknown Sunday morning, had embezzled approximately $35,000 of the funds of the bank. A letter left by Holleman addressed to the president of the bank, states that he lost the money in speculating in cotton futures.

The letter to President Maudlin was found in the cash box. It recited that Holleman began speculating one year ago with $600, which he had saved. After losing this he borrowed $1,000 from the bank, but his losses continued and then he admits he began using the bank's money freely.

Holleman directed that all of his real and personal property be turned over to the bank officials, which is small compared with his shortage.

The directors issued a statement yesterday in which it was announced that Holleman's defalcations would not be over $35,000, and that the bank would not be impaired. The bank's surplus is $225,000.

State Bank Examiner Wilson is making an examination of the bank's books.

Holleman was 50 years old, and has a wife and several children. He has resided here for twenty years and enjoyed the confidence of the citizens generally.

Fire of Incendiary Origin Destroys Pensacola Home

PENSACOLA, July 21.—The large two-story residence of Harry Knox on West Government street was completely destroyed and a number of others damaged and narrowly escaped destruction yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, the fire being of incendiary origin and started at a time when but few people were astir. A strong wind fanned the flames, and although the fire department, or at least three trucks reached the scene early, they could do nothing toward extinguishing the flames, but centered their efforts toward preventing the spread of the fire. It is claimed the torch was applied beneath the building, and had gained so much headway that the occupants barely had time to escape with their clothing. They saved practically nothing.

Isn't there something which only a want ad. can do for you today?

Georgia Sheriff Is Held On Different Warrants

ALBANY, Ga., July 21.—An affray at St. Nichols Hotel last Monday night resulted in the arrest of L. H. Glenn of Abbeville, sheriff of Wilcox county, and G. B. McDuffey, marshal of Leary.

There are four warrants against Sheriff Glenn, charging assault and battery, carrying concealed weapons, assault with intent to murder, and gambling. Marshal McDuffey is charged with gambling. Warrants charging both men with gambling were sworn out by Officer R. T. Bailey, who made the arrests.

Several other persons were arrested in connection with the affair. This affair led up to other arrests for gambling, sworn out by the assistant chief of police, J. W. Kemp, and the following were arrested yesterday morning: A. S. McLendon of Cordele, W. R. Beasley, formerly of this city, now of Jacksonville; D. B. Motley and Charley Daniel of this city. All the warrants were sworn out before Justice J. R. DeGraffenreid.

Concerning the affair between Glenn and McDuffey, it is charged that the two men were playing poker in Glenn's room in the hotel. Glenn asserts that McDuffey, losing rapidly, grabbed up the "jackpot" and started off with the money, this precipitating a lively fight, in which McDuffey claims he was shot at by Glenn. He shows a slight wound in one ear which he asserts was the mark of a bullet.

Glenn claims that he did not shoot, but that he struck McDuffey with his pistol and it was then discharged.

That the fight in the hotel room was a hard one was indicated by the blood about the room after the affair was ended. All those arrested waived commitment hearing and made bond for their appearance at the next term of court.

Kentucky Mob Quietly Lynch Negro Murderer

PADUCAH, Ky., July 21.—Without firing a shot, a mob took Albert Lawson, the negro who shot Sheriff R. M. Compton at Paris, Tennessee, Sunday, from the Paris jail at 9:30 o'clock last night and hanged him to a mulberry tree a few yards from the prison. About thirty minutes later the body was cut down.

An attempt was made early yesterday afternoon to lynch the negro. He was taken to the court house yard where a rope was placed around his neck, but as the negro pleaded, more conservative men and the county officials appeared on the scene and begged the mob to allow the law to take its course. A few short speeches were made, and the negro was delivered ed to the officials. He was again locked up.

Later, Sheriff Compton issued a poster over his own signature, requesting the people to let the law take its course, stating that he was much better.

The town began to fill up with countrymen, and at 9:30 o'clock a large mob, with the rope used earlier in the afternoon, went to the little prison, battered down the door and lynched Lawson. Several hundred men nearby paid little attention to the execution.

Lawson was captured early yesterday under a negro's house in Paris. He had had but one meal since the shooting.

A TRAGIC EXPERIENCE.

The Climax of a Woman's Return Trip to Her Home.

A New York woman had a curious and tragic experience, one that seems more like a gruesome page from French fiction than the plain recital of fact.

This woman started out with her husband to accompany him part way on a business trip he was taking to a southern city. It was arranged that she should stop to visit some friends at a point about halfway on the journey and after a two days' stay should proceed and rejoin her husband at his destination and return with him. She made her visit and when she reached the town where she had expected to meet her husband found that he was not at the hotel where he had been stopping, but had left hurriedly for New York the day before. She waited long enough to send telegrams to her husband's office and to their house in New York asking if he had arrived and to receive a negative answer from each place.

Concluding that he had been unable to reach her by telegraph while she was on the road, she decided to return home. She was disappointed, but not at all perturbed, as she journeyed northward. She had to change cars twice on the way. Each change involved a wait of ten or fifteen minutes at a small junction town. As she was pacing up and down the station platform at each of these places she saw a big, pine covered coffin box unloaded from the express car and put aboard the northbound train. At Jersey City the same box was being unloaded, and it crossed the ferry with her in a barge. She noted idly that one of the hearse horses was white and the other black. She went first to her husband's office, but the hour was late in the afternoon, and it was closed. Then she went uptown to her home.

As she was about to enter the apartment house a hearse drawn by a white horse and a black one drove up, and the undertaker climbed down and pressed the button below her name on the row of call bells at the entrance. She asked him what it meant. Thinking she was some inquiring stranger, the undertaker told her that he was bringing home the body of a man who had died on a train near the city whence she had just come and that the undertaker who had taken charge of the body had forwarded it in compliance with the dying man's request. In a daze the woman asked the dead man's name. Then she fell fainting to the door. It was her husband.—New York Press.

DRUG DREAMS.

Queer Visions Conjured Up in the Brains of Daring Experimenters.

An experimenter with the Mexican drug mescal is rewarded by many and varied visions. Before him flit myriads of dainty butterfly forms, glistening, iridescent, fibrous wings of insects, revolving vessels on whose highly polished concave surface of mother-of-pearl many strange and vivid hues play. There are elaborate sweetmeats in endless and appetizing variety and living arabesques of gorgeous hues and superhuman design.

He may take up a pen for the purpose of making notes, but will find himself unable to use it. A pencil, however, proves easy of manipulation. As he writes his paper is covered with a soft golden light, and his hands, seen indirectly, appear bronzed, scaled, fantastically pigmented and flushed with red.

Tiring of the visions, he may light the gas, which immediately fills the room with a glorious radiance, while wonderfully colored shadows of red, green and violet flit here and there. Generally, it is said, no feeling of depression or physical discomfort follows the dream.

A medical experimenter in Kentucky soon after taking a large dose of hashish began to feel very excited; a feeling of inner joyousness possessed him; all fatigue seemed banished forever, and his mind ran riot, one bizarre idea after another rapidly passing through his mind. Later his brain appeared to split in two parts, one of which urged him to the performance of comic gestures, while the other as insistently hinted at impending death and suggested restraint and instant medical advice.

While waiting for a doctor he experienced alternate spells of lucidity and periods when all connections between himself and the outside world seemed to be severed, when a chaos of disjointed ideas and wild reveries obsessed him. The duration of these latter periods was never longer than two minutes, but each seemed an eternity. It appeared a hopeless task to follow the minute hand of his watch during its infinite round; long before the sixty seconds had elapsed he gave up the stupendous task in deep despair. The departure of the doctor synchronized with the return of the feeling of impending death, now most horribly intense.

He imagined himself surrounded by grotesque, menacing, cruel visaged monsters. He felt himself expanding, dilating, dissolving into space, as he ascended steep precipices, covered with Brobdignagian creatures somewhat like lizards, overhanging enormous abysses, the while he was overwhelmed by a horrible, rending, unutterable despair.—Detroit News-Tribune.

MAKING GOLD LEAF.

The Metal Is Beaten For Hours by Men, Then Finished by Girls.

In one of the downtown business streets may be seen sticking from one of the upper windows a massive arm and hand, the hand grasping a huge hammer and the whole sign glided. It is the sign of the gold beaters' establishment, where thousands of the gold sheets are turned out after having been packed by girls.

Gold leaf is packed more by the aid of the breath than by the hands. The operation of transferring a sheet of almost transparent gold leaf from one place to another is so delicate that it is possible to do it only by a light puff of the breath. It takes most girls six weeks to acquire this knack, and some girls are never able to acquire it.

The gold reaches the beaters first in wide bars or nuggets and has to be weighed, melted and made into inch wide ribbons before anything else is done. The ribbon is then cut into inch squares and beaten with a hammer welded by a man. When each leaf has been beaten thin it is transferred to a mold, where it is beaten four hours more. The beating is done with a wooden hammer weighing from seven to eighteen pounds, on a sheepskin cushion, which rests on a granite block. The gold used for beating is usually 22 or 23 carats fine. A little alloy of copper or silver is added to make it spread. It would be impossible, the beaters say, to handle perfectly pure gold.

After the gold has been beaten it is handed over to the girls, who lift the unshaped leaf from the mold with a pair of wooden pliers, flatten it out on a sheepskin cushion by gently blowing on it, cut it to a perfect square, replace it between the leaves of the book and flatten it out with the breath.

There are twenty-five leaves in a book, and a skilled girl can pack seventy books in a day, for which she gets from 2½ to 3 cents a book.—New York Times.

Few things are impossible in themselves. It is not so much means as perseverance that is wanting to bring them to a successful issue.

Never mind who was your grandfather. Who are you?—Proverb.

S.S.S. NATURE'S PERFECT TONIC

Something more than an ordinary tonic is required to restore health to a weakened, run-down system; the medicine must possess blood-purifying properties as well, because the weakness and impurity of the circulation is responsible for the poor physical condition. The blood does not contain the necessary quantity of rich, red corpuscles, and is therefore a weak, watery stream which cannot afford sufficient nourishment to sustain the system in ordinary health. A poorly nourished body cannot resist disease, and this explains why so many persons are attacked by a spell of sickness when the use of a good tonic would have prevented the trouble. In S. S. S. will be found both blood-cleansing and tonic qualities combined. It builds up weak constitutions by removing all impurities and germs from the blood, thus supplying a certain means for restoring strength and invigorating the system. The healthful, vegetable ingredients of which S. S. S. is composed make it splendidly fitted to the needs of those systems which are delicate from any cause. It is Nature's Perfect Tonic, free from all harmful minerals, a safe and pleasant acting medicine for persons of every age. S. S. S. rids the body of that tired, worn-out feeling so common at this season, improves the appetite and digestion, tones up the stomach, acts with pleasing effects on the nervous system, and reinvigorates every portion of the body.

FOUR BIG GAMES TO BE PLAYED NEXT WEEK

OLYMPICS COME FIRST ON TUES-DAY FROM JACKSONVILLE.

Plucky Orlando, With Her Great Leaguers, Coming Next Week for Three Straight Games.

Manager Henry Davis, the happiest man in town, announces four big games for the coming week, and states that the fans will have the chance to see some fine ball playing if they put in the proper attendance at the park.

To start the week he has secured the Olympics, one of the strongest teams out of Jacksonville playing amateur ball. This club has played a large number of games, including Southwest Georgia, and have won the majority of them. It is expected that the two teams will be fairly well matched for this occasion.

Following this game and commencing on Thursday, Sanford, the crack team of the southern part of the State, is coming here. They are all finished ball players, for the citizens of that gay town have spent money on the club, engaging some of the best artists they could secure to represent their town on the diamond. Sanford will undoubtedly be the fastest team to play here this season, and the game should be one worth going miles to see. The Sanford series will begin next Thursday and end Saturday.

Palatka and Ocala are both coming here with special trains and their own crowd of enthusiastic "rooters," for neither are satisfied and want some more of the fast article handed them.

The attendance at the Ocala game in that city Tuesday was something like 1,000 people, and while Gainesville carried the larger number of the crowd from here, our people fail to give us the attendance here that good baseball demands, and they should remember that attendance is something that assists in keeping the team going.

Lucious Revels of Island Grove was in the city Sunday.

C. R. Minglehoff returned home
Saturday night after a two-weeks' vacation in Georgia.

Orven Sikes of Island Grove was in town Sunday.

The veterinary surgeon of this place was suddenly called to Johnson on Sunday for the purpose of treating a sick horse. Owing to the extreme darkness of the night he missed the road and did not get home until 8 o'clock Monday morning.

Ben Morrison of Island Grove spent Sunday afternoon in town with friends.

Brought Home Wednesday.

Eddie Smith and Oscar Kennebrew, the two young men who were injured in the wreck near Kendrick on the Coast Line Tuesday, were brought to their homes in this city Wednesday afternoon on Train No. 40. They are both rather sore, but are bearing their pains well under the circumstances.

The officials have done everything possible for them in the way of physicians and comfort, but decided it best to bring them here that better treatment could be given them.

Starved to Death

Is what could truthfully be said of many children who die. They have worms, poor little things—they don't know it and you don't realize it. If your child is cross, fretful, pasty-complexioned and loses weight for no apparent reason, give it White's Cream Vermifuge—you will be surprised at the results and how quickly it picks up. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Logical Result.

ony."—Manchester Guardian.

WILL MICKLES GETS HIS HEAD SPLIT OPEN

RAISED DISTURBANCE ON TRAIN
FROM Ocala TO THIS CITY.

Only Disorder Reported and Was Stopped in Short While by the Efficient Officers.

Will Mickles, a negro of Spring Hill, got boozy and tried to run the excusion from Ocala to Gainesville on Tuesday night, with the result that his head was split open with a railroad lantern and the negro placed under arrest.

Mickles was trying all along to create some disturbance in the colored coaches of the train, and after having been repeatedly warned he persisted in his rowdiness, and while engaged in a row with another negro his head was crushed with a heavy railroad lantern.

Mickles was tried Wednesday and sentenced to pay a fine or serve time in the "gang" for his behavior, for it was learned that he was the only one in the large crowd of colored people that was in anywise unruly or disagreeable on the trip.

Leaving off the wreck which occurred on the way down, this is considered one of the most pleasant excursions ever run from this city, and the officers as well as the people are thankful that the same rowdy crowd was not experienced on the return from the Brick City as was the case last year.

Considerable drinking and fun was indulged in about Ocala, but after the crowd was landed on board the cars everyone, with the exception of Mickles, was quiet and as peaceable as could be in both departments of the train.

Just as dirt is said to be only matter in the wrong place so it may be said of waste that, strictly speaking, it is not waste but only matter for which as yet no use has been found. This is well recognized when we think of the many substances which once were considered useless and an encumbrance, but which now as by-products are serviceable to man and the source of considerable revenue.

The British postoffice department has issued a circular to all its employees advising them to show the utmost courtesy to patrons, and stating that promotion would depend greatly upon its exercise. Doubtless the circular was needed or it would not have been issued. A similar step by the various public service departments in this country would not be amiss, for while on the whole an obliging disposition is shown by public employees yet in many cases a little more courtesy would be very acceptable.

THE BASEBALL UMPIRE.

Of all the positions the least to be envied, that of the umpire of a baseball game is at the head of the list. If he is fair to the visiting team the home fans term him a robber, and if he shows the least partiality for the home boys, the visitors cannot find language sufficiently strong in which to express their epithets toward him. It is simply impossible for him to please the partisans of the respective players, for two persons on opposite sides seldom see things through the same glasses.

The editor of The Sun has witnessed the last two games between the Gainesville, Palatka and Ocala teams, and occupied a position during these games to enable him to pass judgment, from an impartial standpoint, upon the decisions of the umpires. The umpire for Palatka at the last game played in that city undoubtedly made some wrong decisions, but in the long run he about evened things up, and Gainesville lost the game on account of poor playing—not through decisions of the umpire.

Mr. Gerig, who umpired the game at Ocala last Tuesday, certainly was as fair as it was possible for an umpire to be, yet there were people from Gainesville who termed some of his rulings "rotten"—a most disrespectful term—and had the Gainesville team lost it would all have been laid to the umpire.

In the game played in Gainesville some weeks ago between our boys and Ocala, Mr. Lee Graham, who is universally recognized as absolutely fair as an umpire, and who has a thorough knowledge of the game, was the umpire. He was perfectly fair and impartial in his decisions, but in several instances partisans of the Ocala team declared they had been "robbed"—and they reiterated these assertions to Gainesville people in the Brick City last Tuesday.

The person who says Lee Graham would knowingly or wilfully make a wrong decision is either a knave or a fool, and their expressions should be treated with the contempt they deserve. Lee Graham would not knowingly wrong any man, and criticism of such fair and impartial men as umpires is calculated to cause capable and fair-minded men to refrain from acting as arbiters between teams of the rival towns.

Have more charity for the umpire, and remember that two persons seldom see things alike.

The medicine of sunshine is something we cannot have too much of. There are a thousand ills and pains and aches of mankind for which it is the cheapest and most effectual of remedies. When the Samaritan poured wine and oil into the wounds of the beaten traveler he also poured in lots of the sunshine of a lovable, merciful disposition, and it helped to heal the poor man just as much as the medicine and food. Sunshine chases away the shadows and brings hope and cheer. More sunshine in business, home, social service, and religion is what the world needs.

Local patriotism consists in building up a community materially, socially, intellectually and morally. To talk of patriotism, whether local or national, even with the tongue of an angel, is nothing but rant unless it is accompanied by practical action along the lines indicated. It is recorded of the old Jews that when they returned to Jerusalem and saw the havoc wrought by their enemies every man did his share in rebuilding the city. The same spirit working in any city today is the best evidence of local patriotism any one can give.

MAJOR HEALEY IS DEAD.

Major Geo. P. Healey, one of the best-known men in Florida, died in Jacksonville Tuesday morning at the DeSoto Sanitarium, after a lingering illness.

The Jacksonville Metropolis says of him: "The direct cause of his demise was heart failure, but up to a few months ago he was in excellent health and was one of the most active men in Florida."

"Major Healey was a native of Pennsylvania, and served creditably in the Federal army during the Civil War. Many years ago he removed to Seville, in Volusia county, where he engaged in orange culture and took a prominent part in the politics of the State."

"In conventions he was often heard, and his face was familiar at every session of the Legislature until the recent one."

"His extensive acquaintance with prominent men all over the State, and his activity in behalf of certain propositions rendered him effective in legislative matters. Strenuous as a worker in politics, he claimed the friendship of his opponents because of his cheerful disposition. Several years ago his activity in political debates excited much attention, and he was known all over the State as 'the Bald Eagle of Volusia.'"

"A couple of years ago he removed to Jacksonville and claimed this city as his home until his death."

"Major Healey was an active and enthusiastic member of the local order of Elks."

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

A FATAL FRIENDSHIP.

Devotion of Princess Lamballe to Marie Antoinette.

SLAIN BY A PARISIAN MOB.

The Assassination of the Princess Who Escaped and Returned to Comfort Her Friend, Was One of the Worst Acts of the Reign of Terror.

It was in the historic Carignano palace at Turin that the Princess Lamballe was born. Her father was Louis Victor of Carignano, of the royal house of Sardinia and Savoy.

Her childhood was spent in Turin during the period that followed the defeat of the French through the brilliant military tactics of Prince Eugene of Vienna. At eighteen she was married to Stanislaus, son of the Duke of Penthièvre of France.

The chief phase of this duty was the town of Lamballe, about fifty miles from Rennes. The Duke of Lamballe died in one year, and as yet, as etiquette allowed a marriage with Louis XV was contemplated. This did not go into effect, however, and the princess withdrew from the court.

She met Marie Antoinette when that princess first came to Paris, and they were mutually attracted and became friends. The Princess de Lamballe saw the dangers to which this young foreigner was exposed, and when Marie Antoinette became queen of France in 1774 and appointed the princess superintendent of the royal household she entered upon her duties with the sympathetic understanding of a loyal friend. The closest ties of affectionate regard drew these two young royal personages together. Through the careless gaiety of court life the Princess de Lamballe was the judicious friend. When illness came to the queen she was faithful and devoted.

When the storm of adversity broke over the royal family and it was arranged that an escape should be effected Mme. de Lamballe got safely to England, going across from Dieppe, but the royal family were arrested at Varennes and declared traitors to France.

Mme. de Lamballe's devotion was so true she at once hastened back to Paris to be with the queen. Her friends urged and implored her to think of the danger to herself and pointed out that she could be of no real service at such a critical time. But she knew better than they did what a comfort her presence would be, and her heart was entirely occupied with the sorrows of her sovereign. She was allowed to become a prisoner with the royal family in the temple and for one week she was a cheerful and helpful companion, full of affectionate arts to make the hours less bitter and giving to Marie Antoinette the loving, devoted care that only a friend so loyal could give.

When those about the prison saw what an influence of joy Mme. de Lamballe brought to the royal prisoners an order was issued for her removal to the prison of La Force. From here she was taken for a mock trial and offered her life if she would take oath against the monarchy. With scorn she refused to do this.

Then came one of the most terrible acts of the period of the reign of terror. She was delivered to the people, wild with the desire for blood, and was killed in the courtyard of La Force prison. They stabbed her with sabers, cut off her head, tore her heart from her body while it was yet palpitating and then dragged her body through the streets to the temple.

On the way there they stopped at a hairdresser's and made him rouge the beautiful face and friz and powder the hair. This man nearly died with fear while at this awful work. When it was done and the head set on a pike, the long, fair curls of her pretty hair fell about the neck. Those of the mob who suggested this hideous work upon the head said, "Antoinette will now recognize her friend."

The heart was also put on the end of a pike and the route to the temple resumed. The royal family were together, and Louis was reading to them, when they heard the sound of the mob and loud, high voices. Suddenly the door was opened violently, and as they all started to their feet some men pushed themselves past the guard and shouted to the king: "The people have something to show you. If you don't wish them to bring it up here you had better go to the window."

With the deadly fear in their hearts they did as directed and looked into the dead and painted face of their devoted friend and also saw her tender heart and her poor body, hacked by the sabers of these wretches.

With a cry of horror and despair Marie Antoinette fell into a state of stupor. Mme. Elizabeth forced her into a chair, and her children clung to her and cried with fear. Louis tried to control his voice as he said with pathetic dignity, "You might have spared the queen the knowledge of this frightful calamity."—Boston Globe.

Where Tipping Is Tabooed.

It may be interesting to mention that it is neither customary nor advisable to give tips anywhere west of the Sierra Madre. I did it on two occasions and in both cases learned to my regret that the waiters became so familiar with the guests and slack in their services both to myself and others that they were discharged from their employment by the Mexican proprietor, whose watchful eye discovered the lax attention pretty quickly and without complaint from the visitors. I felt very uncomfortable about it, for my intended kindness was in both instances the root of the trouble.—Outing Magazine.

What It Looks Like.

Little Elsie, aged three, who was walking in the garden with her nurse one evening, caught sight of the thin crescent of the new moon hanging low in the west and exclaimed in great excitement: "Oh, look, look, nurse! The moon's all gone away and there isn't anything left but just its skin!"—Delineator.

"I have been somewhat constive, but Doan's Regulents gave just the results desired. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—George B. Krause, 306 Walnut avenue, Altoona, Pennsylvania.

A TUCK HUNTER'S ESCAPE.

So Close a Call the Native Really Thought Himself Dead.

Hunting elephants for their tusks involves courage, patience and infinite cunning. Frequently the hunter becomes the hunted, and the tables may be turned fatally. A writer in McClure's Magazine tells of an escape, vouched for by "an Indian dealer who never lied about anything and who claims to have seen this deliverance exactly as he reported it."

Some natives were hunting elephants in the neighborhood of Lake Rudolph, and he was with them for the purpose of trading cotton cloth for ivory. Elephants like old bunch grass that has become dry like hay, and a herd of them, attracted by "dry grazing," as it is called, came suddenly within an eighth of a mile of the camp.

One native named Juma, from the coast, an unskilled hunter, observing that the wind was in such a direction that it blew news of the herd to him rather than blowing his whereabouts to the knowledge of the herd, ran out in the open with his rifle and aimed at short range at a powerful creature which was watering a straggling shrub with water he had taken in his trunk from the pond.

Once hit, the elephant was correspondingly furious and rushed at Juma after a deliberate scrutiny of the immediate foreground to discover his whereabouts. Having determined where his assailant stood, he tore along, crazy with rage, toward the shaking savage.

Juma, with an oriental's instinct of prostration before such an overwhelming force, merely threw himself flat upon the ground.

The elephant rushed completely over him, but by accident left him safe, although choked and blinded with the disturbed and sandy soil. The great feet cleared him, and the tusks missed him.

Almost twenty-four hours passed before Juma dared believe himself alive and sound, and for the first twelve hours after the excitement he spoke of himself only in the past tense, as of one dead.

The Clothesline Test.

"Let me see her clothes on the line," said an old fashioned woman recently, "and I can tell if she is a good housekeeper." The test lies in the way the garments are hung. If the shirts are scattered around promiscuously the woman lets garbage stand on her kitchen table overnight. The shirts, like we men, should always hang together, shoulder to shoulder, and everything of its kind should hang in a row.—Atchison Globe.

Not Desired.

Having at enormous pains got her length, breadth and thickness about right, the woman heaved a sigh of relief. "No fourth dimension in mine, if you please!" she exclaimed with unmistakable feeling.

Some aver that the feminine mind is not attracted by metaphysics anyway!—Exchange.

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dizziness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.

Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

CARE OF DAIRY UTENSILS

By John M. Scott, Florida Agri. Experiment Station

Cleanliness should be the motto of everyone who handles dairy products. One of the main sources of greatest contamination is the pail or other vessel in which the milk is received. This is due to the lack of proper cleaning. If the dairy utensils are properly washed and thoroughly cleaned twice each day, it will add greatly to the keeping quality of the milk and butter. Perhaps the point in which we most frequently fail is in the washing of the cans, strainers, and bottles used in the dairy. One has often heard it said that it is hard to wash vessels that have contained milk. So it is, but only if it is not done in the right way.

Clean Water

The water used for washing must be uncontaminated. This precaution no dairyman can afford to neglect. In many instances where typhoid fever has appeared, the source of the disease has been traced through the milk to the water used in cleaning the dairy utensils. The milk was only the distributing agent, but the typhoid germs multiplied rapidly in it. Other germs, besides those of typhoid, may be carried in the same way. Hence the necessity of using pure water for cleaning all vessels.

Washing Dairy Vessels

All vessels should first be thoroughly rinsed with cold or warm—not hot—water, to remove all traces of milk; and then scalded with boiling water, which destroys the germs. Sterilizing with live steam is the best method of destroying germs. Although this is not practicable on all farms, yet every dairyman can do the next best thing, and that is to boil all the vessels for a few minutes. This requires a boiler large enough to receive the largest vessels. When removed from the boiling water, the vessels should be set upside down, in a place which is free from dust, and quite clean. The vessels are placed upside down so that they may drain thoroughly.

If vessels are first washed with hot water, the heat causes the albumin in the milk to coagulate and stick to the sides. As a result the vessels will be greasy and sticky, and when in this condition they are certainly hard to clean.

Frequently, on removing the vessels from the boiling water, they are wiped with a cloth that is teeming with millions of germs. When vessels are wiped with such a cloth, more germs are usually left in the vessels than are removed. The boiling of the vessels is not for the purpose of removing dirt, but to destroy germ life. Hence, after boiling, the vessels should not be wiped, but set to drain dry.

The glassware used in the dairy should be washed in the same way. However, the glass vessels may be thoroughly dried outside and inside with a clean cloth, after being removed from the hot water. This must be done while the vessels are still warm, and will give the glass a bright and clear appearance, otherwise it would appear dull and cloudy. These vessels can then be sterilized by heating in the oven. This wiping is not necessary if a steam sterilizer is used.

Keeping the Vessels Clean

The vessels are often set down in a haphazard way and without any thought of keeping them clean. They must not be kept in the barn or cow lot where dirt is being blown about, and where the animals may get at them. Neither should they be kept in a room that is used for a general storeroom. Their proper place is in a room used for dairy utensils and for nothing else, where they can be protected from dust and other impurities. They should always be covered or inverted, after cleaning and drying, so that no dust can get in.

Sunning Dairy Vessels

If the vessels are cleaned as directed, and sterilized by boiling, there is no need to sun them. But half-cleaned greasy vessels breed bacteria in the dirt, and their condition can be improved somewhat by sunning them. Sunlight destroys many of the organisms which cause the souring of milk. An exposure of an hour and a half each day would not be too much. A room with a southern aspect is best for this, if it has a large double window admitting plenty of sunlight. It is not uncommon to see the dairy utensils set out on the wood pile to sun. This method is usually worse than no sunning at all, as the vessels catch dust laden with germs. The vessels are sometimes turned upside down when sunning. When placed thus little benefit is derived, as it is the inside of the vessels that needs the sunlight and not the outside.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell systems, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to Bell Telephone almost anywhere ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

ABOUT ADVERTISING—NO. 6

If It Fits You Wear This Cap

By Herbert Kaufman

Advertising isn't a crucible with which lazy, bigoted and incapable merchants can turn incompetency into success—but one into which brains and tenacity and courage can be poured and changed into dollars. It is only a short cut across the fields—not a moving platform. You can't "get there" without "going some."

It's a game in which the worker—not the shirker—gets rich.

By its measurement every man stands for what he is and for what he does, not for what he was and what he did.

Every day in the advertising world is another day and has to be taken care of with the same energy as it's yesterday.

The quitter can't survive where the plugger has a ghost of a chance.

Advertising doesn't take the place of business talent or business management. It simply tells what the business is and how it is managed. The snob whose father created and who is content to live on what was handed to him can't stand up against the man who knows he must build for himself.

What makes you think that you are entitled to prosper as well as a competitor who works twice as hard for his prosperity?

Why should as many people come to your store as patronize a shop that makes an endeavor to get their trade and shows them that it is worth while to come to its doors?

Why should a newspaper send as many customers to you in half the time it took to fill an establishment which advertised twice as long and paid twice as much for its publicity?

This is the day when the best man wins—after he proves that he is the best man—when the best store wins, when it has shown that it is the best store—when the best goods win, after they've been demonstrated to be the best goods.

If you want the plum you can't get it by lying under the tree with your mouth open waiting for it to drop—too many other men are willing to climb out on the limb and risk their necks in their eagerness to get it away from you.

It is a man's game—this advertising—just hanging on and tugging and straining all the time to get and keep ahead. It is the finite expression of the law of competition which sits in blind-folded justice over the markets of the world.

"That Which Is Worth Having Is Worth Advertising For"

The old adage that what is worth having is worth asking for is still true—true of the more intricate life of today.

The thing you want—whether it is a used piano or a home, whether it is a ready-made business or a lost pocket-book—is obtained readily through advertising, and with difficulty, or not at all, through other means.

GAINESVILLE,

University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops, in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Paine's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, Warren's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance.

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State, is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road, affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat, "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit a few of them in the following enumeration of what

GAINESVILLE'S GAME.

Boys From the University City Played Better Ball, and Won, 5 to 0.

Under the above caption The Ocala Banner of Wednesday comments as follows upon the game in the Brick City Tuesday afternoon:

"On account of the delay incident to the transfer of passengers, mail and baggage at the wreck a few miles north of Ocala, the local baseball team arranged to convey the baseball boys from the scene of the disaster to Ocala in automobiles. A number of cars were in waiting at the wreck when the train arrived, and quickly conveyed the visiting athletes to the Ninth street park.

"The crowd at the grounds yesterday afternoon has been estimated at a thousand to twelve hundred persons. Gainesville had more than four hundred rooters in the crowd, and it was mostly Gainesville's noise that was heard. Decorated carriages and automobiles, some of the latter from Gainesville, nearly encircled the lot, and the right and left-field foul lines were occupied by spectators all the way to the fence.

"It was Gainesville's game from the start. The visitors hit the ball harder and more timely, ran bases with more judgment, and their signal and scientific work was par excellence. They also failed to make any errors. Manager Davis and Captain Graham are to be congratulated on their selection of players and the general of their team.

"Comparing the work of both teams, the locals were clearly outclassed in yesterday's game. With practically the same teams contesting, the Ocala team won from Gainesville on the latter diamond three weeks ago by the score of 7 to 4. The locals should study Gainesville's excellent code of signals. The home boys were caught off the bases several times during yesterday's game. The glory is not all Gainesville's though, for Harry Dullock, an Ocala production, contributed a very full share of the work that brought them the victory.

PRESIDENT TAFT WILL LIKELY WIN THE FIGHT

Raw Material Will Get Considerable Reduction If Not Put on the Free List.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—President Taft will win his fight for free or reduced rates of duty on raw materials. Nearly every member of the conference on the tariff bill conceded this Saturday. The indications are that when the new tariff bill becomes a law the rates on the articles which the President desired to come in free will be as follows:

Iron ore, free, (present rate 40 cents per ton).

Oil, free, (now protected by countervailing duty).

Hides, 7½ per cent ad valorem, (present rate 15 per cent).

Coal, 45 cents per ton, (present rate 67 cents).

Lumber, probably $1.25 on rough, with Senate rates on finished. This would be a material reduction throughout the lumber schedule.

When the conferees transferred to the President's shoulders the responsibility of putting the foregoing raw materials on the free list it was not believed he would meet with success in bringing about a changed sentiment in relation to these articles. In effect the President was told by the conferees that if iron ore, oil, hides, lumber and coal were put on the free list or the rates reduced below the figures adopted in the Senate, he "would have to get the votes." It was recognized that it would be impossible to put hides, lumber and coal on the free list if the conference report was to be adopted by the Senate. Neither was it believed rates on these articles could be reduced. That a change of sentiment had taken place in the Senate in the matter of free iron and free oil was a matter of common gossip about the capital. It was stated just as confidently that the 15 per cent ad valorem rate on hides would have to be cut in half.

Coal at 45 cents a ton, it was declared, would prove satisfactory to every section except Wyoming which fears that the industry in that State might be ruined by cheap Canadian coal. The railroads are now building from Northwestern States to Canada which will tap the Canadian coal fields.

President Taft will win another de-

Brother Accidentally Kills Favorite Sister

BRUNSWICK, Ga., July 19.—Within a half hour after he reached home after an absence of a year at Lindale, Ga., and while being welcomed by the members of the family, J. Edgar Smith, aged 20, shot and almost instantly killed his 14-year-old sister, Rene, who was standing at his side as he showed his father an automatic pistol he had brought. The ball entered the girl's forehead.

The father, mother, sisters and brothers were standing together. Rene was young Smith's favorite sister and was nearest him. The young man had examined the pistol and believed it empty.

The father, W. J. Smith, had made special preparations to welcome the young man at his home-coming and it was planned that the family would at once sit down to a reunion feast.

For several years Edgar Smith had been employed at Lindale, near Rome, where he is cashier for a large concern. His duties cause him to carry back and forth large sums and to protect them he has been in the habit of carrying a revolver in his satchel. Saturday, when the parents and children knew that he was coming for a week's visit, preparations were made for a real "Thanksgiving" dinner. The home, No. 508 First avenue, was ready for his coming and his favorite sister was jubilant.

Immediately after his arrival, the young man in his desire to give his little sister and others pleasure, unpacked his valise. Pictures and trinkets had been taken out and admired; then several snapshot views. Finally, taking out the revolver, Edgar took out the magazine to see that there were no bullets in it and then snapped the weapon once or twice.

The father was in the act of warning him not to play with the weapon when there came a deafening report. Rene, with her head but a few inches away, inclined forward, uttered one word, "Mother," and then fell to the floor. The blood spattered over her face and in a moment the brains oozed out. Physicians were hastily summoned by neighbors who first reached the house after the alarm, but the young girl died in an hour.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith includes Rene's three brothers, Herbert, Edgar and Hackett, a married sister, Mrs. Clarence McDonald, and a little sister and brother. Mr. Smith has been associated for some time with Senator L. R. Akin and with his son, Hackett, is in charge of the local automobile garage.

The boys had always been cautioned about the use of firearms, since Edgar, who today killed his sister, narrowly escaped death six years ago, two shots from a shotgun entering his temple. A young man standing nearby was instantly killed by one of the shots.

Tampa Saloon Keeper Dies At Hand of An Assassin

TAMPA, Fla., July 19.—Alfredo Alvarez, proprietor of a West Tampa saloon, was assassinated at an early hour Sunday morning just as he was entering the gate of his home, by an unknown person who made his escape. Near the scene of the crime was found a single-barrel shotgun marked H. V. K. One peculiar feature of the murder is that Alvarez is the man from whom it is said a check for $100 was obtained which figured in the alleged offer to pay State's witness Burmudez, in the Castagne-Ficarratta murder case, to keep the State's

ACCIDENT OCCURS AT PHIFER'S SIDING, NEAR ROCHELLE.

Sam Wilson, colored, was killed while attempting to board a moving freight train on the Atlantic Coast Line at Phifer's siding, about two miles east of Rochelle, on Tuesday evening.

It was the regular local freight, and was just slowing up for the mill when the negro, just to steal a short ride, attempted to board one of the moving box cars, and missing his hold fell under the train. His head was severed from the body, and his left arm cut off by the wheels passing over it, death resulting instantly.

Wilson was about thirty years of age and was supposed to be a gambler, traveling from place to place and meeting the "pay days" with the working class of negroes, where he would generally "take in" what money they possessed.

His cards and other gambling paraphernalia were found only a short distance from his body and were well-covered with blood, some of the same being in his pockets at the time he was picked up.

Justice Robinson of Rochelle was notified and held an inquest, but after hearing the evidence the train crew was exonerated and the man buried at the expense of the county. He was known around Waldo, which place was his former home.

cluded victory in the Philippine free trade provision. The sub-committee which has been considering this section has decided to permit the free admission of 150,000,000 cigars annually, as requested by the President, instead of 70,000,000 as would be admitted under a Senate amendment.

It is expected the Philippine section as approved by the sub-committee will be adopted. It provides for the free admission of 300,000 pounds of wrapper tobacco and 1,500,000 pounds of filler tobacco and 300,000 tons of sugar.

With the exception of rice and the limitation placed upon tobacco and sugar, all articles "the growth, product or manufacture of the Philippine Islands" will be admitted free. The inclusion of the words "or manufacture" is the subject of criticism in many quarters.

Many think this would make it possible to ship raw materials into the Philippine Islands for manufacture with cheap labor and then bring them into the United States free of duty.

By action the tariff conferees settled the question of giving the secretary of the treasury authority to issue fifty year bonds at a rate of interest not exceeding 3 per cent to cover the entire cost of purchasing the site and constructing the Panama canal. An amendment to the tariff bill giving the authority was prepared by Secretary MacVeagh and adopted by the conferees.

The effect of the bond provision is to repeal the limit of the authorization contained in the Spooner act, although not interfering with 2 per cent bonds issued under that authority to the amount of $84,631,980. The estimated cost of the canal is $375,201,000.

There is no longer any question that the corporation tax amendment will be accepted. It will tax the net earnings of corporations organized for profit at the rate of 1 per cent.

Practically the only subject considered in the forenoon session of the conference was the woolen schedule. Three reductions were made, on women's and children's dress goods, tops and yarns.

During the afternoon session an effort was made to dispose of the cotton schedule and many of the Senate's specific rates were adopted.

EXCURSION TRAIN WAS WRECKED NEAR O

A. C. L. Baseball Special Meets With Terrible Accident---Miracle That No One Was Killed

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

One of the worst railroad wrecks that has ever occurred in Florida, occurred on the Atlantic Coast Line at Ray's Spur four miles north of Ocala Tuesday afternoon at 12:30. The train left Gainesville at 10:20 a. m., with eleven coaches containing 400 passengers, about one-half being colored, in charge of Conductor Sammerlin and Engineer Rives.

No mishap occurred until the train had reached the above named point, when the terrible accident happened. The engine, baggage car, and first seven coaches passed safely over the switch but evidently the passage of the engine and these coaches by some means loosened the bolt of the switch, and the other five coaches, containing white-passengers, were thrown from the track, one taking the side track, and the other four being thrown over and almost completely demolished.

Strange to say, no one was killed, which is nothing less than a miracle, but fourteen persons were injured, the most serious of whom was Eddie Smith, pressman in The Sun office, whose left arm was broken above the wrist, and who it is feared also sustained internal injuries.

Following is the list of those injured, all of whom are residents of Gainesville with three exceptions:

Oscar Kennebrew, knee dislocated.
Eddie Smith, wrist broken.
T. B. Stringfellow, back hurt.
Ruth Kennard, cut over eye.
H. G. Kennard, bruised about body.
D. H. Grace, Evinston, thumb hurt.

cluded, however, as there were numerous other questions on which the conferees desired disposition before adjourning until Monday.

The metal schedule with the exception of iron ore and a few of its products, practically has been agreed upon. Some of the paragraphs may be reopened when the iron ore question has been settled. On wire nails the rate of those of one inch or more in length was fixed at four-tenths of one per cent, and on the smaller sizes three-fourths of a cent. This is an increase on the smaller sizes and a decrease on the larger sizes from the Dingley rates.

The grocers of Leesburg have discontinued the practice of soliciting grocery orders from private homes.

Cashier Absconds With Large Sum Bank's

ANDERSON, S. C., July 21.—It developed yesterday that Cashier J. T. Holleman, of the Bank of Anderson, who suddenly left for parts unknown Sunday morning, had embezzled approximately $35,000 of the funds of the bank. A letter left by Holleman addressed to the president of the bank, states that he lost the money in speculating in cotton futures.

The letter to President Maudlin was found in the cash box. It recited that Holleman began speculating one year ago with $600, which he had saved. After losing this he borrowed $1,000 from the bank, but his losses continued and then he admits he began using the bank's money freely.

J. B. Brooks, knee hurt.
R. B. Bostick, ankle.
John Jones, Micanopy.
Mrs. Mary Kennard,
H. H. Pinkson, hip.
W. P. Welch, leg hurt.

Passengers on the train had to be transported to the scene of the wreck for points south, but the train was reconstructed in excursions to return last night, leaving Ocala. The last coach of the train which was the most any of the white coaches the rails, and no one was injured.

OAK HALLS WON THE GAME AT OCALA 5 TO 0

HINES HAD 'EM AT HIS MERCY AND NEVER WALKED A MAN.

Brilliant Fielding of Oak Halls Made Ocala Sports Sick—Hendricks and Denton Batted Fine.

(By Jack Shea.)

From Wednesday's Daily Sun: GAINESVILLE 5, OCALA 0.

The famous Oak Halls literally played rings around Ocala yesterday, and made them look like a work horse hitched to a surry.

There is no use talking, Gainesville had the best team and the majority of loyal rooters, and they cheered their favorites on to victory at every opportunity.

The park was crowded, about one thousand people attending the game. The all-round work of Tim Hendricks was the feature of the game, while "Bebe" Denton shared with him in the batting honors.

Hines, the Oak Hall twirler, had the Ocala chaps at his mercy, not a man reaching third base, and only three of the Brick City boys could locate the ball.

How It Was Done.

First Inning—Miller skied out to center; Allen flew out to left; Graham popped out to short. No runs.

Dodge got one in the ribs and took his base, but was out trying to swipe (the base was contagious); out, short to first; Donaldson, as they call him, WHIFFED. NO RUNS.

Second Inning—Ham Bullock hit for one base, and then came Tim Hendricks with a neat two-bagger to right; Denton hit to pitcher, safe on first, scoring Bullock, and sending Hendricks to third; Taylor hit to right for one base, scoring Hendricks, but Denton was thrown out at the plate, Taylor taking second on the throw-in; Watson hit to pitcher, out on first, Taylor taking third; Hines ended the inning by fanning. Two runs.

McCormick (imported) singled to left; Gore whiffed, and McCormick stole second, but was caught napping, and of course the blocks were put to him—it was funny; W. Dodge popped a little one to Sandy. NO RUNS.

Third Inning—Miller hit to third, who spilled it, Miller safe, but a moment later stole second; Allen hit to third and was safe on first, but Miller was run down between second and third; Graham struck out; Allen was thrown out trying to pilfer second. No runs.

Melver hit to center for one base, but was thrown out trying to swipe second. (Harry did that thing.) Galloway fanned; Brown, the invincible (?) flew out to right. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning—Harry Bullock

hit a slow one to second, out at first; Tim Hendricks hit to short and went to second on bad throw to first; Denton out on grounder to second; Taylor hit for two bases, scoring Hendricks; Taylor went to third on passed ball; Watson whiffed. One run.

E. Dodge struck out; Harris sent a high one to short left, Sandy running back and making a nice catch; Donaldson, Capt., as they call him, popped a little fly to Denton. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning—Hines out, short to first; Miller grounded out to short; Allen fouled out to catcher. No runs.

McCormick (old resident of course) hit in front of plate, Bullock picking it up and making a nice throw to first in time to catch him; Gore, another old resident, of course, (?) fouled out to first; W. Dodge could not locate the ball on three swings. NO RUNS YET.

Graham flew out to center; Bullock out, third to first; Hendricks, of course, singled past third, it being his third clean hit of the game; Hendricks stole second. In an effort to get back to the bag, Hendricks was injured in the hand, Donaldson stepping on it. Hendricks was up and doing that thing and promptly swiped third, but was caught playing off a little too far from the base. No runs.

Melver out via the dead route, third to first; Galloway fanned; Brown, the Georgia peach, drove a liner to Hendricks, who gobbled it in nicely. NOTHING DOING YET.

Seventh Inning—Denton lined out a single to left; Taylor sacrificed; Watson, of course, had to butt in with his usual two-bagger, scoring Denton; Hines fanned; Miller skied out to left. One more for us.

D. Dodge bunted, safe on first, but was mowed down by Bullock's arm, and walked back to the bench from second; Harris out, second to first; Donaldson, Capt., as they call him, popped a small-sized sky-dinter to Graham and was out. NO RUNS YET for Ocala.

Eighth Inning—Allen hit to second, out at first; Graham out, short to first; Bullock was robbed of a hit to center by Galloway making a grand catch. No runs.

McCormick, the old home boy, of course, was fooled on three straights; Gore, from the same place, of course, hit for one base and stole second, but when Bullock overthrew the base Gore thought he could make it to third—he took a seat on the bench, Watson's arm being too strong for him; W. Dodge hit one to Sandy and was out at first. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning—Hendricks out, pitcher to first; Denton hit to right for one base (pair of shoes); Allen hit through short, both runners safe; Watson hit to third, forcing Denton out at that bag; Hines hit through third scoring Allen, but Watson was tagged trying to go from first to third on the hit. One run.

Melver out, short to first; Galloway made the same mistake of hitting to Sandy, out, of course; Brown rolled an easy one to Allen and he never smelled first base. NO RUNS AT ALL.

SHERIFF RAMSEY HAS CAUGHT "BLIND TIGER"

EVER ON THE ALERT FOR OFFENDERS OF THE LAW.

Shad Sams Arrested for "Booze" Peddling—Some Whiskey and Other Evidence Landed.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Shad Sams, a negro lineman, was arrested Saturday night by Sheriff Ramsey and Deputy Bruton on a charge of selling "booze" without the required license, and is now confined in the county jail to await the action of circuit court.

Shad was well supplied with the necessities for a small "tiger," for the sheriff states that he found a quantity of empty bottles, corks and plenty of empty jugs in the house occupied by the man, and also succeeded in getting hold of the remaining "booze" that he had—a cheap grade of whiskey.

Mingo Robinson assisted the sheriff in locating this joint, for it seems that Mingo had given the negro some money to get the whiskey, but he had failed to return with either the money or "fire water," and when approached by Mingo he would not give him any satisfaction about it. Mingo then notified the sheriff and the arrest was made.

The umpire was all we could expect—good.

"Pop" Watson pulled off his usual two-bagger.

Miller covered first nicely. Couldn't expect anything better.

Did you notice Bullock's pegging to second? Superb, eh?

It did not take Sandy long to show 'em how to play short.

Pink slips, eh; Ocala is "dishing" 'em out right and left.

Jack Spottswood was anxious to get a hand in the fracas, too.

Didn't Harry B. put up a fine game? He just tried to show 'em.

After crawling out of the wreck we certainly did enjoy the game.

Show up a player that can beat Tim Hendricks for all around playing.

Taylor knows a few points about batting, as he laced a few of them out.

Tim Hendricks and Harry Denton are "sporting" new shoes—their stick work earned them.

All the Gainesville boys put up the game of their life. That's why Ocala did not have a smell.

Hines is certainly the candy when it comes to pitching. They either had to hit or sit down—no walking going on yesterday.

WALDO 1, MICANOPY 0.

Interesting Contest at Former Place Tuesday Afternoon.

One of the prettiest games of ball played in this section for some time was the one Tuesday between Waldo and Micanopy, when the former came out victorious by a score of 1 to 0.

It was a pitchers' battle to a certain extent, although they had fair support, and the game played reflects credit upon the teams.

Prewitt and Harvey were the battery for Waldo, while Watkins and Hester did the heavy work for Micanopy.

Considerable rivalry exists between these places, but this now gives Waldo the lead, they having secured the first two games.

T. & J. WILL MAKE SOME EXTENSIONS

NEW BOND ISSUE HAS BEEN MADE FOR THIS PURPOSE.

Some of the Issue Has Already Been Disposed of by Superintendent
Glass on Trip South.

The Tampa & Jacksonville Railway Company have made another bond issue of $480,000, which will be used for the purpose of extending their line south, and also to better equip the road with rolling stock.

Superintendent A. L. Glass, who has had charge of the road for the past year, has been hard at work and has succeeded in disposing of a great many of the bonds to parties in different sections of the State.

As soon as the issue has all been taken the company will buy new equipment and also extend the line south to the Gulf, as per their original intentions, a large part of the road bed having already been built for this purpose.

There is no doubt that as soon as they have sufficient funds to push this new extension the road will prove one of the best paying investments in the State, for it traverses one of the most fertile sections of Florida, and besides the large vegetable business it will take in tracts of timber lands that have never been touched, either for turpentine or timber purposes.

The main terminals and shops being located here, it will mean more for Gainesville, and every business man should lend their assistance to encourage the efforts of the managers in building up Greater Gainesville.

In all about six cars left here filled with parties to witness the game of baseball, and all passed over the bad places in the road without two exceptions.

Fourth Week of Session Begins Under Auspicious Circumstances.

Monday marked the beginning of the fourth week of the Normal. One-half of the term has already passed, and it has been the most intensely strenuous ever held in Gainesville. Not only are the daily sessions from 8 in the morning till after 4 in the afternoon, but the whole of Saturday forenoon is given to recitations. There is no disposition to shirk work or responsibility. Teachers and students are working with equal zeal.

Last Friday night the Epworth League of the Methodist church tendered a reception to the faculty and students of the Normal. Mrs. Padgett most kindly gave the use of her fine residence and lawn. The night was perfect. The large parlors were thrown wide open. A more cordial welcome was never extended. The evening was spent in social chat, games, recitations and music, followed by the most delicious refreshments. Mrs. Padgett was pronounced a most charming hostess. Gainesville's hospitality was equal to the occasion.

It is thought that the Georgia Legislature will pass a compulsory educational law at the present session.

Breathitt county, Ky., is to be chopped up and divided among several counties. Presumably, the adjoining counties are powerless to prevent it.

It is said that Harry Thaw has improved wonderfully at Matteawan. Glad to hear it! Fifty or sixty years more in that place may make a fairly decent citizen of Harry.

If 1,800 drunks occurred in prohibition Atlanta during the past six months, as recorded by the police department, what would have been the number under the open saloon system?

If some of the endearing terms used and the gracious attention, courtesy and deference paid each other during the engagement period were continued after marriage we would hear less of marriage being a failure.

The Lakeland News says: "If, as Lawyer Wells says, the prohibition amendment would be inoperative if passed, there is no sense or reason in the saloon people fighting it. Why not let the poor, misguided prohibitionists have the fun of passing it anyway, if it can do no harm? 'Tis true Don C. McMullen comes along and makes Wells' contentions look like the lowly and despised 30-cent piece—still, let all those who believe the Wells proposition help pass the amendment. Then they will have a good joke on the prohibitionists."

A DAY'S DISPATCHES.

News dispatches, when considered collectively over a long period, are used by historians as a thermometer by which to gauge the trend of conditions. Even a single day's news may serve to give us a line on the pulse of the nation.

We read in a dispatch from Washington that the bigger half of 90,000,000 consumers of the United States appear to resent the proposed advance in tariff rates. The President's mail is clogged with protests against the Payne-Aldrich bill.

An Associated Press dispatch from New York informs us that both William E. Corey, president of the United States Steel Corporation, who arrived from Europe, and Judge Eibert H. Gary, chairman of the corporation's board of directors, who was sailing for France, characterized the Payne-Aldrich measure as an ideal prospective law.

Mr. Corey said that "almost everybody is satisfied with the tariff bill as it now stands," and predicted that the result of the bill's change would be a "speedy acceleration of prosperity and a long era of good times."

Judge Gary declared "the new bill should be generally satisfactory, and President Taft, the cabinet, and Congress are entitled to great credit for their successful work. The revision has been conservatively downward. Business will improve rapidly from now on, and steel will come into its own again, with new high records."

A Washington news item tells us that the Hon. John A. M. Adair, speaking in the House of Representatives, declared: "There surely is much alarm in the fact 4,000 men now own over 85 per cent of all the wealth of the country, and each one of the balance of the 90,000,000 people owns less than $500 in property. The records show that 51 men, who have been the beneficiaries of special legislation, now own $4,000,000,000 of this country's wealth. It is a lamentable fact that one thirty-fifth of the entire wealth of the United States is therefore concentrated in the hands of fifty-one men, and these men are today dictating the legislation of this special session of Congress."

Still another dispatch informs us that Bishop William Bell, of Los Angeles, in addressing the Yosemite Valley Chautauqua, declared that "if President Taft fails to make good on the tariff and disappoints the people after making them promises, it may be necessary to recall to the White House Theodore Roosevelt."

After scoring the ministry for indifference to politics, Bishop Bell closed by saying: "Wealth is centered in a few individuals, and the time is coming for a division of this wealth, even if a revolution is necessary."

And all this information was conveyed in a single day's news! We wonder if Senator Aldrich ever reads the newspapers?

The number for July of Florida Health Notes is a "special typhoid fever" number, treating of the disease from a scientific viewpoint and also containing much in the way of practical advice. It has an interesting article on "Septic Tanks," a subject upon which there should be more information available than there is at present. It begins as follows: "Queer things, these septic tanks! You just run raw sewage in at one end, and you don't put any chemicals or anything else in but the sewerage, and you see nice clear water come out of the other end. Queer, isn't it?" Health Notes says there are two of them at Tallahassee, one at Gainesville, one at Lake City, "and a private one near Jacksonville." The Times-Union has information that there is a private septic tank in Jacksonville in West Riverside. Of the septic tank, Health Notes declares: "It is the coming method of sewage disposal for our inland towns. It is the ideal for the country home. They are being made suitable size for a single family, or for two or three families. The cess pool is getting to be a thing of the past, and rightly so."—Times-Union Short Talks Since reading the statement that an automobile concern was going to furnish Claude L'Engle an auto to canvass Florida for the United States Senate as an advertising scheme, we've concluded to do a little running ourselves, provided we can make the same deal. It doesn't make any difference what office we run for, it's the automobile we're after. Soft ad.—Manatee County Record.

HON. W. A. BLOUNT.

Hon. W. A. Blount of Pensacola, conceded to be the leading member of the Florida bar, will in all probability be a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Tallafiero.

Of Col. Blount and his probable candidacy for this most important office, The Pensacola Journal of last Sunday says:

"Friends of Hon. W. A. Blount in Escambia county and throughout Florida will be pleased to learn that he is seriously considering becoming a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator James P. Tallafiero.

"It has been intimated for several weeks that Mr. Blount was considering the matter, and yesterday he stated that he would very probably become a candidate. Regarding his probable candidacy he said, 'I have given the matter serious consideration for several weeks, and it is both possible and probable that I will be a candidate in the primaries of 1910.'"

"It is understood that Mr. Blount will become a candidate for the high office if he can satisfactorily arrange his law practice.

"Friends of Mr. Blount have been urging him for the past several weeks to enter the campaign for Senator, and have assured him of their support. This support, it is stated, does not lie alone in Pensacola and West Florida, but all over the State, and with the vigorous campaign which he will make if he decides to enter, will make him an exceptionally strong candidate.

"It is advanced by friends of Mr. Blount that West Florida should have a representative in the United States Senate and that no able or more energetic man could be found in the entire State than Mr. Blount.

"Mr. Blount left yesterday for Tate Springs, Tenn., where he will remain for several weeks. Within a short time after his return it is expected that a formal announcement will be made of his candidacy, provided he can in the meantime see clearly how he can satisfactorily arrange his practice."

MAJOR HEALEY IS DEAD.

Major Geo. P. Healey, one of the best-known men in Florida, died in Jacksonville Tuesday morning at the DeSoto Sanitarium, after a lingering illness.

The Jacksonville Metropolis says of him: "The direct cause of his demise was heart failure, but up to a few months ago he was in excellent health and was one of the most active men in Florida.

"Major Healey was a native of Pennsylvania, and served creditably in the Federal army during the Civil War. Many years ago he removed to Seville, in Volusia county, where he engaged in orange culture and took a prominent part in the politics of the State.

"In conventions he was often heard, and his face was familiar at every session of the Legislature until the recent one.

"His extensive acquaintance with prominent men all over the State, and his activity in behalf of certain propositions rendered him effective in legislative matters. Strenuous as a worker in politics, he claimed the friendship of his opponents because of his cheerful disposition. Several years ago his activity in political debates excited much attention, and he was known all over the State as 'the Bald Eagle of Volusia.'"

"A couple of years ago he removed to Jacksonville and claimed this city as his home until his death.

"Major Healey was an active and enthusiastic member of the local order of Elks."

Governor Comer of Alabama has called an extra session of the Legislature for action on sixty-five subjects, among which is the submission of an amendment for constitutional prohibition to the people, as well as amendments for biennial sessions of the legislature and the establishment of new counties of less area than is now permitted. Pre-empt in the call is suggestion for strengthening prohibition laws being urged to prevent storage in clubs or public sale places of intoxicating liquors, making goods thus stored contraband, to prevent foreign agencies from establishing in the State to sell liquors, to lay tax on such liquors as may be sold, and provide speedy punishment for violations. Better laws against gambling are also included.

THE BASEBALL UMPIRE.

Of all the positions the least to be envied, that of the umpire of a baseball game is at the head of the list. If he is fair to the visiting team the home fans term him a robber, and if he shows the least partiality for the home boys, the visitors cannot find language sufficiently strong in which to express their epithets toward him. It is simply impossible for him to please the partisans of the respective players, for two persons on opposite sides seldom see things through the same glasses.

The editor of The Sun has witnessed the last two games between the Gainesville, Palatka and Ocala teams, and occupied a position during these games to enable him to pass judgment, from an impartial standpoint, upon the decisions of the umpires. The umpire for Palatka at the last game played in that city undoubtedly made some wrong decisions, but in the long run he about evened things up, and Gainesville lost the game on account of poor playing—not through decisions of the umpire.

Mr. Gerig, who umpired the game at Ocala last Tuesday, certainly was as fair as it was possible for an umpire to be, yet there were people from Gainesville who termed some of his rulings "rotten"—a most disrespectful term—and had the Gainesville team lost it would all have been laid to the umpire.

In the game played in Gainesville some weeks ago between our boys and Ocala, Mr. Lee Graham, who is universally recognized as absolutely fair as an umpire, and who has a thorough knowledge of the game, was the umpire. He was perfectly fair and impartial in his decisions, but in several instances partisans of the Ocala team declared they had been "robbed"—and they reiterated these assertions to Gainesville people in the Brick City last Tuesday.

The person who says Lee Graham would knowingly or wilfully make a wrong decision is either a knave or a fool, and their expressions should be treated with the contempt they deserve. Lee Graham would not knowingly wrong any man, and criticism of such fair and impartial men as umpires is calculated to cause capable and fair-minded men to refrain from acting as arbiters between teams of the rival towns.

Have more charity for the umpire, and remember that two persons seldom see things alike.

FLIES SEVENTY MILES IN GREAT AEROPLANE

Orville Wright Travels Over an Hour and Twenty Minutes in His Wonderful Machine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—Establishing a new record for aviation in America, Orville Wright in the Wright aeroplane late yesterday at Fort Myer made a spectacular flight of one hour, twenty minutes and forty-five seconds' duration. His longest previous flight was of seventy-four minutes, made by Mr. Wright at Fort Myer last fall.

During the entire flight the machine was under perfect control but several times appeared to the spectators to be on the point of diving forward.

The machine traveled a distance of about seventy miles, it was estimated, by Wilbur Wright, and at one time during the flight the height attained, between 260 and 280 feet, exceeded the highest point ever attained by a heavier-than-air machine on this continent. The most wonderful part of the flight was the execution of three complete "figure eights," which required careful maneuvering in directing the machine.

A thrill passed through the spectators as the white flyer, apparently beginning to dive to the earth, would regain its equilibrium and speed onward around the oval above the parade grounds. After rounding the course half a hundred times the aviator directed the machine around the course in small double circles of a "figure eight." It was the first time this season and the second time during his career he has executed this maneuver.

To the amazement of the crowd the machine described a second eight and then a third one, after which it was guided back to its former course of level oval.

With the determination of making a longer flight than heretofore attempted, the Wrights ordered the aeroplane taken from its shed to the starting apparatus shortly after 5 o'clock. Three members of President Taft's cabinet, Secretary of the Navy Meyer, Attorney-General Wickersham and Postmaster-General Hitchcock, were on hand early to witness the expected flight.

In yesterday's flight Mr. Wright met every requirement set forth by the Government, except that of carrying one passenger and making the five-mile straightaway run.

Wilbur Wright, replying to a comment that the flight yesterday would have covered the width of the English channel which Hubert Latham unsuccessfully attempted to cross Monday, said it would have been possible for his brother to have crossed from France to England and to have returned to France again without landing. He also remarked that it would have been easy to have continued yesterday's flight as far as Baltimore.

Latham Will Try Again to Cross the Channel.

PARIS, July 20.—Hubert Latham, who Monday made an attempt to fly across the English channel with his monoplane, but fell into the water, announced yesterday that he expects to make another attempt on Friday. M. Latham is in Paris as the guest of the Parliamentary Aviation Commission.

WILL MICKLES GETS HIS HEAD SPLIT OPEN

RAISED DISTURBANCE ON TRAIN
FROM OCALA TO THIS CITY.

Only Disorder Reported and Was Stopped in Short While by the Efficient Officers.

Will Mickles, a negro of Spring Hill, got boozy and tried to run the excursion from Ocala to Gainesville on Tuesday night, with the result that his head was split open with a railroad lantern and the negro placed under arrest.

Mickles was trying all along to create some disturbance in the colored coaches of the train, and after having been repeatedly warned he persisted in his rowdiness, and while engaged in a row with another negro his head was crushed with a heavy railroad lantern.

Mickles was tried Wednesday and sentenced to pay a fine or serve time in the "gang" for his behavior, for it was learned that he was the only one in the large crowd of colored people that was in anywise unruly or disagreeable on the trip.

Leaving off the wreck which occurred on the way down, this is considered one of the most pleasant excursions ever run from this city, and the officers as well as the people are thankful that the same rowdy crowd was not experienced on the return from the Brick City as was the case last year.

Considerable drinking and fun was indulged in about Ocala, but after the crowd was landed on board the cars everyone, with the exception of Mickles, was quiet and as peaceable as could be in both departments of the train.

STRANGLED TO DEATH IN PECULIAR MANNER

TAMPA, Fla., July 20.—The Daily Tribune of Monday chronicled the death of a child which probably occurred in the most peculiar manner ever recorded.

Leroy Lassiter, colored, about one year old, early yesterday morning came to his death while his mother was ironing in the rear of her home on Maryland avenue, close to Scott street and near the stockade.

The child hanged himself. Death was brought about in the most novel manner in local annals. Rolling about on the bed, where its mother left the infant while she ironed some clothes in another room of the cottage, the baby rolled to the foot of the bed, falling feet first in the space between mattress and iron rail of the bedstead. The chin and back of the head were caught in firm position in this way and slowly the child strangled to death while the mother worked industriously away.

First information of the tragedy was conveyed to police headquarters by Dog Catcher Arthur Schleman, who telephoned from the stockade. Police Captain Matthews hurried to the place and found the report true in every detail. The case looked mysterious to this officer and he at once placed the mother in the city stockade for safe-keeping pending a coroner's inquest. Coroner Gibson was informed, a jury was impaneled and brought in a verdict that the infant came to his death through strangulation. The jury did not hold the mother responsible and she was released immediately from custody.

The mother, a washerwoman, declares she left the child in the bed while doing her work. The infant rolled all over the bed in its play. She paid little attention to it. Later she heard the child crying, but still paid no heed, thinking that Leroy would soon hush its cries. Its cries were silenced, but not until the baby boy strangled itself to death in the wedge, the height of the child not permitting its feet to touch the floor from the bed.

Georgia Sheriff Is Held On Different Warrants

ALBANY, Ga., July 21.—An affray at St. Nichols Hotel last Monday night resulted in the arrest of L. H. Glenn of Abbeville, sheriff of Wilcox county, and G. B. McDuffey, marshal of Leary.

There are four warrants against Sheriff Glenn, charging assault and battery, carrying concealed weapons, assault with intent to murder, and gambling. Marshal McDuffey is charged with gambling. Warrants charging both men with gambling were sworn out by Officer R. T. Bailey, who made the arrests.

Several other persons were arrested in connection with the affair. This affair led up to other arrests for gambling, sworn out by the assistant chief of police, J. W. Kemp, and the following were arrested yesterday morning: A. S. McLendon of Cordele, W. R. Beasley, formerly of this city, now of Jacksonville; D. B. Motley and Charley Daniel of this city. All the warrants were sworn out before Justice J. R. DeGraffenreid.

Concerning the affair between Glenn and McDuffey, it is charged that the two men were playing poker in Glenn's room in the hotel. Glenn asserts that McDuffey, losing rapidly, grabbed up the "jackpot" and started off with the money, this precipitating a lively fight, in which McDuffey claims he was shot at by Glenn. He shows a slight wound in one ear which he asserts was the mark of a bullet.

Glenn claims that he did not shoot, but that he struck McDuffey with his pistol and it was then discharged.

That the fight in the hotel room was a hard one was indicated by the blood about the room after the affair was ended. All those arrested waived commitment hearing and made bond for their appearance at the next term of court.

Fire of Incendiary Origin Destroys Pensacola Home

PENSACOLA, July 21.—The large two-story residence of Harry Knox on West Government street was completely destroyed and a number of others damaged and narrowly escaped destruction yesterday morning about 4 o'clock, the fire being of incendiary origin and started at a time when but few people were astir. A strong wind fanned the flames, and although the fire department, or at least three trucks reached the scene early, they could do nothing toward extinguishing the flames, but centered their efforts toward preventing the spread of the fire. It is claimed the torch was applied beneath the building, and had gained so much headway that the occupants barely had time to escape with their clothing. They saved practically nothing.

Isn't there something which only a want ad. can do for you today?

GAINESVILLE'S GAME.

Boys From the University City Played Better Ball, and Won, 5 to 0.

Under the above caption The Ocala Banner of Wednesday comments as follows upon the game in the Brick City Tuesday afternoon:

"On account of the delay incident to the transfer of passengers, mail and baggage at the wreck a few miles north of Ocala, the local baseball team arranged to convey the baseball boys from the scene of the disaster to Ocala in automobiles. A number of cars were in waiting at the wreck when the train arrived, and quickly conveyed the visiting athletes to the Ninth street park.

"The crowd at the grounds yesterday afternoon has been estimated at a thousand to twelve hundred persons. Gainesville had more than four hundred rooters in the crowd, and it was mostly Gainesville's noise that was heard. Decorated carriages and automobiles, some of the latter from Gainesville, nearly encircled the lot, and the right and left-field foul lines were occupied by spectators all the way to the fence.

"It was Gainesville's game from the start. The visitors hit the ball harder and more timely, ran bases with more judgment, and their signal and scientific work was par excellence. They also failed to make any errors. Manager Davis and Captain Graham are to be congratulated on their selection of players and the general of their team.

"Comparing the work of both teams, the locals were clearly outclassed in yesterday's game. With practically the same teams contesting, the Ocala team won from Gainesville on the latter diamond three weeks ago by the score of 7 to 4. The locals should study Gainesville's excellent code of signals. The home boys were caught off the bases several times during yesterday's game. The glory is not all Gainesville's though, for Harry Bullock, an Ocala production, contributed a very full share of the work that brought them the victory.

Score by Innings.

"Summary: Earned runs, Gainesville 2; stolen bases, McCormick, Miller, Hendricks, Denton; sacrifice hits, Taylor, Denton, Watson; two-base hits, Gore, Hendricks, Taylor, Watson; base on balls, none; struck out, by Brown 4, by Hines 7; left on bases, Gainesville 4; double play, McCormick to Donaldson; hit by pitcher, Dodge, D. Time of game, 1:30. Umpire—Mr. Gerig."

Local patriotism consists in building up a community materially, socially, intellectually and morally. To talk of patriotism, whether local or national, even with the tongue of an angel, is nothing but rant unless it is accompanied by practical action along the lines indicated. It is recorded of the old Jews that when they returned to Jerusalem and saw the havoc wrought by their enemies every man did his share in rebuilding the city. The same spirit working in any city today is the best evidence of local patriotism any one can give.

Two People Are Killed in Dispute Over An Old Cow

UNION, Miss., July 19.—One old cow, which would not have brought fifty dollars on the market, caused a bloody pistol battle in the streets of this little town Saturday. It resulted in the killing of two men, the fatal wounding of two more and the serious wounding of another.

The dead:
E. J. McDonald, cattle man.
Peter McDonald, his brother.
Fatally injured:
Cornelius Chisolm, cattle man.
Joseph Miller, friend of Chisolm.
Seriously injured:
Murphy McDonald, son of E. J. McDonald.

The fight was between the McDonalds on one side and Miller and Chisolm on the other, two factions which have quarreled for many years.

The old cow had outlived her usefulness as a milk producer but Saturday afternoon Chisolm and the McDonalds claimed her ownership. Miller and Peter McDonald started the row in front of the Union Bank. Revolvers were drawn and the shooting commenced. Chisolm and E. J. McDonald came up about this time and joined in. Peter McDonald fell first and Miller was the next. E. J. McDonald and Chisolm for a while shot desperately, until both fell. McDonald dead and Chisolm mortally wounded. Murphy McDonald, who appears to have been a would-be peace maker, was seriously wounded.

All the men in the bloody battle are prominent in this section of Mississippi and number many relatives in Newton county. Consequently, it was believed at first that further strife would result, but indications are now that, with Peter and E. J. McDonald dead and Chisolm and Miller dying, no one will be left to answer to the law for the tragedy.

It was reported that an effort would be made to have a company of State militia sent here from Meridian, but the authorities deny this.

Kentucky Mob Quietly Lynch Negro Murderer

PADUCAH, Ky., July 21.—Without firing a shot, a mob took Albert Lawson, the negro who shot Sheriff R. M. Compton at Paris, Tennessee, Sunday, from the Paris jail at 9:30 o'clock last night and hanged him to a mulberry tree a few yards from the prison. About thirty minutes later the body was cut down.

An attempt was made early yesterday afternoon to lynch the negro. He was taken to the court house yard where a rope was placed around his neck, but as the negro pleaded, more conservative men and the county officials appeared on the scene and begged the mob to allow the law to take its course. A few short speeches were made, and the negro was led to the officials. He was again locked up.

Later, Sheriff Compton issued a poster over his own signature, requesting the people to let the law take its course, stating that he was much better.

The town began to fill up with countrymen, and at 9:30 o'clock a large mob, with the rope used earlier in the afternoon, went to the little prison, battered down the door and lynched Lawson. Several hundred men nearby paid little attention to the execution.

Lawson was captured early yesterday under a negro's house in Paris. He had had but one meal since the shooting.

PAPER STOCK BEING LIBERALLY TAKEN

WAS PLACED ON MARKET LAST WEEK FOR FIRST TIME.

General Manager Williamson Highly Encouraged Over the Prospects of This Large Company.

The stock of the Kraft Paper Company, the proposed factory for Greater Gainesville, is now being liberally subscribed for by the citizens of Gainesville and throughout the county.

Mr. Williamson stated that they were in receipt of many letters of inquiry since the publication of the prospectus in The Sun, and he was satisfied that the stock would be taken in sufficient quantities to start the work on the buildings and plant within a few months.

The location selected some time since for this mill is just north of the city, a plat directly between the T. & J. Railway and Coast Line. The vast amount of timber under their control starts at this point and runs for miles in north, east and western sections, and a sufficient quantity is owned to operate almost indefinitely.

The location of this mammoth plant for Gainesville will mean at least an increase in population of fully 2,000 people, and everyone should lend their aid in securing the factory.

Other sections will probably make bids for the location of this mill but owing to the fact that their greatest interests are here, Gainesville can, with proper efforts, secure this manufacturing enterprise, and the Board of Trade should exercise their best efforts in securing the plant for this city.

If people with symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and the irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. #### The Remembrance of Other Years.

"One of the most beautiful studies ever seen upon the face of mortal suffused itself on the countenance of Lord St. Orville as he fell at the feet of Julia in a deathlike swoon." You probably suppose that this sentence is an extract from some schoolgirl's novelette; but, in fact, it comes from a novel which eighty years ago was seen on the tables of most people of taste and culture. That is the style which was delectable in the brave days of old.—London Telegraph.

Everyone would be benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative for stomach and liver trouble and habitual constipation. It sweetens the stomach and breath, gently stimulates the liver and regulates the bowels and is much superior to pills and ordinary laxatives. Why not try Foley's Orino Laxative today? J. W. # SUNDAY MERRYMAKERS MEET WATERY GRAVE

Sudden Squall Capsizes Sloop Near New York and Sixteen Persons Lose Their Lives.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Sixteen persons, five of them women, met death by drowning in the waters either surrounding or in the vicinity of New York Sunday. Ten of the victims perished after the capsizing of the excursion sloop Roxana, carrying twenty-two passengers, which was struck by a sudden squall in lower New York bay, midway between Coney Island Point and Hoffman Island, late yesterday afternoon. Of the survivors one woman, Mrs. C. Knudson of Brooklyn, is in such a serious condition that she probably will die. Her two daughters were drowned.

The other drownings, with but one exception, were swimming accidents. Stephen Ernst, 28 years old, of Brooklyn, was drowned while trying to learn to swim. Charles Hendricksen, 2 years old, of Brooklyn, met death in the same vicinity by the upsetting of a rowboat. William Yeager, a 6-year-old boy of New York, slipped on some rocks and fell into the Hudson to his death.

Off Bellmore, L. I., Charles Conn, 32 years old, got beyond his depth and died; Glano Rizzo, a laborer, 21 years old, perished while swimming in the Harlem river. Lastly, Edward Wall, 35 years old, of East Orange, N. J., was seized with cramps and drowned in the Morris canal near Newark.

The list of the dead in the Roxana accident, as ascertained last night, follows: Seelina Sameason, New York; Ella Olsen, Flatbush, L. I.; Olga and Selma Knudson, sisters, 14 and 11 years old, respectively, Brooklyn; John Christensen, Abraham Hunn, Abraham Jamison, Alice Engel, Peter Spjelson and John Thompson, all of Brooklyn.

The captain of the Roxana and the twelve survivors were picked up with great difficulty in a rough and choppy sea by the tug Lamont.

The Roxana, with her skipper, Capt. Samuelson, was chartered at Ulmer beach, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon by a party of Swedes from Brooklyn for a sail across the bay to Milland Beach, Staten Island, and back. The first leg of the voyage was made without mishap and all hands piled ashore to make merry. Beer was served and some of the survivors could give but a hazy account of the accident.

All afternoon there was a stiff breeze from the southwest, which left a nasty cross sea. Toward 4 o'clock the Roxana, reeling homeward across the bay under all the sail good judgment would permit to be carried, slipped into a squall. She lay over until the copper plates glistened in the sun as the angle of the deck steepened to the angry water in her lee, the women screamed and scrambled for the upper rail.

The captain struggled to slack away his sheet, but there was no time for such measures of relief. In one moment the Roxana was bottom up and the foam was black with bobbing heads. In another moment the Roxana had vanished and one by one the heads began to follow her.

Fortunately the tug Lamont was keeping a sharp lookout. Capt. Keyes saw the sloop keel over in the gust and fall to come back. Instantly he headed for the spot where the Roxana had been, but before he could reach her ten of the passengers had gone down. Life lines and buoys were thrown to those still afloat and after a few minutes of brisk and anxious work all in sight were taken aboard the Lamont.

The survivors, thoroughly exhausted and half dazed, were taken to a hospital on Staten Island.

Few coherent accounts of the scene after the capsizing of the boat could be obtained. All hands, it seems, tried to cling to the overturned boat, but as the little vessel soon sank, their plight was precarious. Of the survivors seven were men and six women.

The Roxana was a vessel of about thirty tons. She had recently been re-rigged and was considered a sturdy craft.

MISSIONARY'S WIFE PRAISES CUTICURA

Daughter's Head Encrusted with Dandruff—Feared she Would Lose her Hair—Many Treatments were Futile—Baby had Milk-Crust.

BOTH CHILDREN CURED BY FAMOUS REMEDIES

"For several years my husband was a missionary in the Southwest, and we were living on the edge of the desert at an elevation of nearly five thousand feet. Every one in that high and dry atmosphere has more or less trouble with dandruff and my daughter's scalp became so encrusted with it that I was alarmed for fear she would lose all her hair, which was very heavy. After spending between five and six dollars for various remedies, in desperation I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. After rubbing the Cuticura Ointment thoroughly into the roots of the hair, I gently combed the crust of dandruff free from the scalp, and then gave her head a thorough shampoo with the Cuticura Soap. This left the scalp beautifully clean and free from dandruff, and after the hair was dry, I again rubbed the Cuticura Ointment, this time sparingly, into the roots, and I am happy to say that the Cuticura Remedies were a complete success. My troubles with dandruff were over, although for a long time afterward I used the Cuticura Ointment as at first, after shampooing, which kept the scalp and roots of the hair moist. I have used successfully the Cuticura Remedies for so-called 'milk-crust' on baby's head, and have never found anything to equal them. You are at liberty to publish this letter, for I do sincerely believe that the Cuticura Remedies are a blessing to mankind. Mrs. J. A. Darling, 310 Fifth St., Carthage, Ohio, Jan. 20, 1908."

Cuticura Ointment is one of the most successful curatives for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed, when necessary, by a mild dose of Cuticura Resolvent (liquid or pills) is often sufficient to afford immediate relief of itching, burning and scaly humors, eczema, irritations and inflammations, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.

FAILED IN ATTEMPT TO CROSS CHANNEL

CALAIS, France, July 19.—Herbert Latham, who made an attempt to cross the English channel from here with an aeroplane, dropped into the sea today after disappearing from view from land. He was brought back here aboard the torpedo boat destroyer Harpon, apparently unhurt. A tug towed the aeroplane in.

The aviator was not injured, neither was he discouraged, and he declared his intention of again trying to cross the channel.

Latham had covered sixteen miles, and while at a great height the motor failed and the machine fell into the water. The French torpedo boat Harpon was close at hand when the accident occurred, and rescued the aviator. Latham's start was made from the top of a cliff at Sangatte, and under propitious circumstances.

Latham showed no signs of nervousness as he shook hands with his friends on mounting the saddle.

"Start the motor," he cried to his assistant, and then with a nod of his head and the words "I'll see you in Dover," he threw the starting lever off, the machine running along the ground with increasing momentum at every turn. Just before reaching the edge of the cliff the aeronaut touched the horizontal lever and the machine, with its white outstretched wings rose gracefully and sailed out over the shining waters amid a roar of cheers from the cliff and shores. The monoplane, after leaving the cliff, ascended gradually until it probably was 300 feet above the sea.

Then straight as an arrow it continued its flight towards the English coast, apparently under perfect control, and at the rate of about thirty-five miles an hour. The Harpon kept almost under her aerial companion, and at the end of fifteen minutes both disappeared in the haze on the horizon.

EDISON HAS MADE GOOD HIS PROMISE

FAMOUS INVENTOR HAS COMPLETED $1,200 CEMENT HOUSE.

Plans Provide Six Styles of Architecture—Plant Costs $40,000—Can Erect 144 Houses a Year.

Greater than he who builds ships and guns of war is the man who shows how to build homes—builds them cleaner, cheaper, roomier.—Emerson.

EAST ORANGE, N. J., July 20.—A home builder, whose work will affect vitally the inner life of the next generation—this is Thomas A. Edison, come to fulfill the prophecy of Emerson.

The wizard of East Orange has prepared his paraphernalia, his black cloth, his magic table. Soon he will wave his hand, and presto—

A house, springing out of nothing. Edison will pour a house from molten cement—just pour it out with no more effect than the iron master pours red fluid iron and produces bars and plates, or the statue maker casts his plaster figures.

The poured cement house—after eight years of experimenting and two years of uninterrupted hard work, is ready. He will pour his first building at East Orange early in August.

Here is a thumb nail description of the house as it will come from the mold:

Size 25x30 feet ground plan.

Rooms—Big living room and kitchen on first floor, two big bedrooms, wide hallway, closets and bath upstairs, front and back porch.

Cost—About $1,200.

Material—Light gray re-inforced concrete.

Time to Mould—Fourteen days.

Decorations—Facades and ornamental work along porch, carved stone pillars in hallways, window seats and paneled doors, with mythological figuring, gabled roofs.

Special Advantages—Fireproof and vermin proof; no repairs.

The people it will benefit particularly—The poor who now live in wretched quarters.

Inventor—Thomas A. Edison.

The Edison home, if it accomplishes half what its creator expects, will revolutionize house-building.

Objections Overcome.

Several great objections which arose two years ago had to be overcome by Edison in his later plans.

One—a practical builder's objection—was that the cement could not be forced through an intricate set of molds and be of the same consistency and strength throughout. Also that the surface would not be smooth.

But Edison has produced a cement of a consistency almost like water which holds the stone and aggregates equally throughout. It will also secure a surface so smooth that it can be painted or frescoed or tinted.

Another objection was that it would be impossible to build molds which would make inner rooms and closets. This, too, has been overcome.

Still another—this time from architects—was that all the houses would be alike, necessarily; that people would not live in them on that account.

But the Edison molds are adapted to a number of variations. With six sets of molds, which the inventor reckons as the right number for a good working arrangement, an immensely wide variety of houses can be constructed.

Now for a description of an Edison one-family, two-story house, 25x30 feet outside, to go on a lot 40x60. This gives a lawn and small garden room.

The front or living room is large, 14x23 feet, while the kitchen is but 3 feet narrower. The ceilings are 3½ feet high.

The stairway extends both ways—to the living room and the kitchen. The second floor contains the two big bedrooms—one 15x14, the other 3 feet narrower. The upper hallway is nearly 20 feet long, leading from the back of the house to the bath room, which is 7½ feet square.

The attic is 27x23, which, with a dividing partition, would make two rooms.

There are many windows. The down-stairs rooms have four each.

The material throughout is reinforced concrete. The six woodwork makes it impossible for fires to break out.

The decorations are cast with the rest of the house. So are all appliances, such as bath and laundry tubs, steps and coal bunkers.

Cost of Building.

Edison's estimate of the cost is based on the builder having the equipment and trade to keep six months busy all the time, and on being able to use the gravel taken in digging the foundations.

One set of molds will cost $25,000. The rest of the plant would come to $15,000. Successful operation, Edison figures, would require six sets of molds kept busy all the year. Such an outfit would turn out 144 houses a year.

Jefferson Davis' Last Child Dies in Colorado

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 19.—Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, daughter of Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy, died last night at her home after an illness of six months. Mrs. Hayes, 54 years old, was the wife of J. Addison Hayes, president of the First National Bank of Colorado Springs.

Friends throughout the country had formed the impression that Mrs. Hayes suffered from a cancer, but the cause of her death was announced by attending physicians as a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Hayes, the last of the family, was the only President of the Confederacy, after the death of her sister, Miss Winnie Davis, at Richmond, Va., made a trip through the South a few years ago, when she was made the "Daughter of the Confederacy" in her sister's stead. Her mother, widow of the Southern President, died in New York about two years ago.

Mrs. Hayes is survived by two sons, Jefferson Hayes Davis, and William Hayes, and two daughters, Lucy Hayes and Mrs. Virginia Webb of Colorado Springs. Jefferson Hayes Davis bears the name of his grandfather through a special act of the legislature.

FOUR BIG GAMES TO BE PLAYED NEXT WEEK

OLYMPICS COME FIRST ON TUESDAY FROM JACKSONVILLE.

Plucky Orlando, With Her Great League, Coming Next Week for Three Straight Games.

Manager Henry Davis, the happiest man in town, announces four big games for the coming week, and states that the fans will have the chance to see some fine ball playing if they put in the proper attendance at the park.

To start the week he has secured the Olympics, one of the strongest teams out of Jacksonville playing amateur ball. This club has played a large number of games, including Southwest Georgia, and have won the majority of them. It is expected that the two teams will be fairly well matched for this occasion.

Following this game and commencing on Thursday, Sanford, the crack team of the southern part of the State, is coming here. They are all finished ball players, for the citizens of that gay town have spent money on the club, engaging some of the best artists they could secure to represent their town on the diamond. Sanford will undoubtedly be the fastest team to play here this season, and the game should be one worth going miles to see. The Sanford series will begin next Thursday and end Saturday.

Palatka and Ocala are both coming here with special trains and their own crowd of enthusiastic "rooters," for neither are satisfied and want some more of the fast article handed them.

The attendance at the Ocala game on that city Tuesday was something like 1,000 people, and while Gainesville carried the larger number of the crowd from here, our people fail to give us the attendance here that good baseball demands, and they should remember that attendance is something that assists in keeping the team going.

Business of This Firm Has Been Something Phenomenal Considering Short Time Established.

S. M. Davis has purchased the interest of A. B. Oliver in the livery and sale stables of the firm and will hereafter handle the business himself.

Although the deal has been pending for the past few days, it was consummated on Monday and S. M. Davis, who was sole owner of the building, now becomes the owner of all the stock, making the entire business his.

He has been a resident of this city for the past few years and has gained a rapid popularity among the citizens and business people generally until now he is enjoying one of the best businesses of its kind to be found in this section of Florida.

The new additions recently made to Mr. Davis' place give him over 25,000 sq. ft. of floor space in his stables and is second to none in this part of Florida.

Mr. Davis states that he will shortly bring in some more new stock to the business, and he proposes to handle it in the same high-class manner that has characterized its past dealings. He will make a specialty of fancy livery, as well as look after wants of his many customers on other lines.
